Lyrics Of "The Cope Of Heaven"

Strophe 1:

If you leave me, close the door,
don't turn your head around -
If you love me, pray for me!

My heart's beating slower,
the light's getting lower,
a hand's reaching out from the sky.
Wrought-up feelings rising up inside.

Strophe 2:

Thoughts are drifting through my mind,
good old memories of all kinds - so many things that we've been through ...

WOLFO

Will you still need me,
or will you conceal me
after some time when I'm gone?
I'm sure you'll find your way to carry on!

Refrain:

I will scramble up the cope of heaven,
bopping 'round in all of space and time.
I still descry your four dimensions.
Look out for the star that will be mine!

Strophe 3:

Before you leave me, make me sway
for the last time in this world -
I spread my wings and smoothly pass away.

How will it be like,
how will I feel like
soon on the other side,
I'm hoping for an everlasting ride.

Refrain:

I will scramble up the cope of heaven,
bopping 'round in all of space and time.
I still descry your four dimensions.
Look out for the star that will be mine!

WOLFO

Strophe 4:

If you leave me, close the door,
you will find somebody new -
I hope she loves you the way I do!

Maybe you're gloomy,
and miss me truly -
maybe you're glad that I'm gone.
I will wait in heaven - I'll be strong!

Refrain:

I will scramble up the cope of heaven,
bopping 'round in all of space and time.
I cannot stand a higher tension,
cruising 'round the stars being sun-kissed.
I still descry your four dimensions.
Look out for the star that will be mine!

Outro:

Will you still need me,
or will you conceal me
after some time when I'm gone?
Maybe you're gloomy,
and miss me truly -
maybe you're glad that I'm gone.
I'm sure you'll find your way to carry on!
